

Rotary

THE QUEST FOR PEACE

In an increasingly unstable world the quest for peace has never been more urgent. Hamble Valley Rotary are pleased to host this keynote lecture by Ed Arnold, Senior Research Fellow at RUSI (The Royal United Services Institute) an independent think-tank. RUSI embodies nearly two centuries of forward thinking, free discussion and reflection on international affairs, defence and security matters. The lecture will be followed by a question and answer session.

Are you relaxed that you live in a safe and stable world? If not, then join us on Tuesday 4th February 7.00pm – 9.00pm.

Tickets are £8.00 and available from:

www.theberrytheatre.co.uk

