Dear parents and carers,

I was delighted to see so many Year 8 parents and students at the annual options' evening this week and to also see so many of the Year 9-11 students volunteering to help out by sharing with parents and students their own experiences of the courses they are taking. We are fortunate to have so many committed students who are keen to help younger students. We are also fortunate to have a talented set of staff which means we can offer over 20 different optional subjects, including academic, technical, practical and vocational courses. I am pleased that we have been able to expand the vocational and technical range of courses. With nearly all GCSEs examined entirely with exams at the end of Year 11, it is good that there are courses students can do where ongoing coursework and practical work count toward their final grade.

It is certainly true that when we give students responsibilities, they rise to the challenge. Nowhere has that been more evident recently than in the college production. Since last week's newsletter, the cast of the Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe have given all their performances. There are some things I do as head teacher that are a duty but watching the college production is a pleasure and a privilege. Students brought the story to life and drew the audiences into the world of Narnia, with their acting, singing, dancing and music making. It was wonderful to see so many students and staff coming and working together to achieve this, whether they were on stage, front of house, backstage, at the sound technician's desk or playing in the band. We have so many talented students. I am always impressed by how modest they are about their talents and how they support one another. It is heartwarming to see them becoming one large family and close-knit community. Although there are lots of staff whose work makes a great production, I would like to thank Mr Harrison, Miss Chatterley, Miss Wood, Mr Lewis and Mrs Anderson for creating the overall vision and bringing the magic of Narnia to life.

As we approach the half term holiday, I do hope your child is able to recharge or, if they are in Year 11, able to make head way on their revision work for the GCSEs. We look forward to welcoming them all back to college on 24th February.

With best wishes
Mr Rule

THE LION THE WITCH AND THE WARDROBE

Congratulations to everyone involved in the sellout run of the fabulous college production of The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe. Apologies Father Christmas (Jack) and the Elf Brigade (Ella, Katie, Emily, Amelia, Amber, Casey, Connie and Eloise) that got wrongly "edited" from the programme. Hopefully you all have now been given a corrected copy to keep.

Below are a few pictures of Saturday's matinee performance. Cast portraits will be available after the half term holiday.

COLLEGE CULTURE – House Points 13th February 2025

YEAR 7 NOTICES

Where did that half term go?

There are lots of tired bodies and exhausted brains in Year 7 now and everyone is looking forward to a well-earned break - pupils and staff! It has been a busy half term with lots of opportunities for the pupils to get involved in house challenges, STRIVE projects and extracurricular activities. It has been lovely to see various members of our year group representing the school in sports fixtures, joining new clubs and being part of the school production.

Well done to 7C1 and 7D2 who are surging ahead in terms of achievement points with a special mention for Mouadh (7D2) who is currently topping the year group with 292 points this term and 857 points this academic year.

Thank you for your continued efforts in supporting the school with regards to our uniform requests but please could I now ask that all pupils are coming to school fully equipped for the day including having a water bottle. A significant number of pupils are not staying hydrated through the day as they do not have a drink with them.

I hope that everyone has a restful week and return to school refreshed and raring to go.
